

Advanced Lesson 008 – Show Notes

American government and the current presidential candidates

American government system: three branches

Executive Branch: the President

Judicial Branch: the Supreme Court

Legislative Branch: House of Representatives & Senate

Main presidential candidates: Hillary Clinton (D), Barak Obama (D), John McCain (R)

Some important issues: the war, the economy, healthcare, immigration, the environment & energy production

Primary elections vs. November elections – win a Party nomination or win the Presidency