

Advanced Lesson 010 – Show Notes

Things to remember before moving to a foreign country

The basic idea of today's lesson is to remind you of some things to learn before moving to a different country. Nobody can give you a full list of everything, but if you pay close attention to what you use on a daily or a regular basis, you can make sure that you know what to get when you move. It's one thing to know "I need an alarm clock," but it's a completely different thing to know where to get that and what it's called.

Also, a quick pronunciation tip: "used" pronounced "uZeD" is the past tense of "to use." However, pronounced "uSeT", it is a form of the imperfect in English ("I used to play with my friends everyday when I was young).
